

Spelling, Punctuation and Grammar

1. The passage below has been written using the wrong homophones. Write the correct spellings in the boxes.

James thought that it wasn't fare that Sean had been so mean to him. He wished that a teacher had scene everything that had happened. He just wanted to be left in piece.

2. Tick two boxes to show where the missing inverted commas should go.

☐ ☐ ☐ ☐

Did you break my trophy? asked Mrs Cruikshank.

3. Insert the missing apostrophes in each sentence.
- a) Mrs Cruikshank thrust the broken trophy in Mrs Steepers face.
 - b) The peas tin was about to become very dented.
 - c) One of the boys shoes created a tripping hazard.
 - d) Mrs Cruikshanks trophies meant the world to her.
4. Rewrite the sentence below in the present perfect tense.

Sean took some food from the school kitchen.

5. Rewrite the sentence below so that it is in Standard English.

I haven't done nothing wrong.